

Humana Veterans Healthcare Services Sponsors Rolling Thunder XXIII In Washington, D.C.

Humana Veterans Healthcare Services announces its 2010 sponsorship of Rolling Thunder XXIII held Memorial Day Weekend, May 28-30 in Washington, D.C. Rolling Thunder is an annual event to raise awareness and support for Veterans, including prisoners of war (POW) and those missing in action (MIA). This year's event expects to draw over 400,000 Veterans to Washington, D.C. paying tribute to America's war heroes.

"Rolling Thunder recognizes, supports, and remembers Veteran heroes who protected our everyday freedoms we often take for granted," said Tim McClain, president and CEO of Humana Veterans. "Humana Veterans salutes these brave men and women who dedicated and sacrificed their lives for our country."

Members of Rolling Thunder will ride motorcycles and participate in various events held throughout the city, including:

- Candlelight vigil at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial
- Wreath laying ceremony at the U.S. Navy Memorial
- Salute of Troops on the National Mall in front of the Lincoln Memorial

Incorporated in 1995, Rolling Thunder is a non-profit organization with over 88 chartered chapters in North America, Australia, and Europe. The organization assists in promoting legislation regarding POW/MIA, Veteran affairs, and continues to raise awareness with Veteran health issues with Immature Disability Disorder (IDD) and Post Trauma Stress Disorder (PTSD). Members also provide financial aid, food, clothing and other essentials to Veterans, homeless Veterans and Veterans' families in need.

About Humana Veterans

Humana Veterans, headquartered in Louisville, Kentucky, is a subsidiary of Humana Military, which is owned by Humana Inc. The company was formed in 2007 to develop solutions to veterans' health care issues. It provides an organizational structure that is flexible, agile, and responsive to the emerging requirements of the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) and the veterans who rely on VA services.